Young Hotel Dance.

The prettiest dance of the season was given Tuesday evening, at the Alexander Young Hotel, in honor of Colonel Frank West and the Officers of the 2nd Cavalry. Prior to the dance a number of dinners were given at this popular hotel. Both the upstairs Grill and the one down stairs were crowded, the manager of the Hotel, had provided two orchestras, one for each place. In strolling through the restaurants one was reminded of San Francisco, for every table was taken and filled, either by our town folk, or the Officers. In their natty uniforms, accompanied by pretty women in handsome toilettes. This is the way Honolulu should appear all the time, generally the hew and cry is "If we only had the cafe" life as it is in our neighboring city—San Francisco. These remarks are generally made by island people after sojourning in the Metropolis of California for several months. We have the cafes, and good ones at that—as has been shown, if the people would only patronize them. Why not, when the next transport is in, tell your cook you have decided to dine out, reserve a table at the Young—either down stairs or up—and watch the result. See if you don't thoroughly enjoy yourself, not only that, but you will get a good meal, in fact every thing the season affords, and served as well as on the mainland. Do I see some skeptical smiles? All the answer I can make is, try it—see if the crowded cafes, beautiful women with their smiling escorts, the sweet and inspiring strains of the Hawaiian music, which is always enthusiastically endorsed by the visitors, if the combination will not repay you and if you will not feel like coming again. Tuesday evening Colonel and Mrs. Hunter entertained at dinner at the Young, covers were laid for eight, Captain and Mrs. Falls invited several friends to dine with them, Major and Mrs. Wood, passengers on the Logan, were elaborately entertained, with several others at dinner, Lieut. Phil Sheridan's and Lieut. James' stag dinner was thoroughly enjoyed by those present, one of the most elaborate dinners was the one given by Lieut. Lewis, U. S. M. C., Captain and Mrs. E. T. Donnelly invited a number of friends to dine with them, the decorations of long stemmed American beauty roses were very effective, Captain and Mrs. Tyner, Lieut. and Mrs. Wiggin and Captain and Mrs. Boniface with four other friends, gave a dinner, the table decorations were Duchesse rose and maiden hair, with table candelabra and dainty pink shades to match the decorations. In fact there were dinners galore, too numerous to mention. After dinner the guests strolled on the Palm Garden of the Young, where the 2nd Cavalry band was giving a concert from 8 until 10. This band is one of the best in the Army, and afforded a musical treat to the music lovers of Honolulu. It was an ideal night on the Roof Garden, the women in their shimmering satins, spangled nets, and figured silk dresses, promenading with men either in the conventional evening dress or service white uniform, contributed to the beauty and enjoyment of the scene—for who does not enjoy observing well dressed women who are attired in the latest fashion. At nine o'clock the dancing began, with music by Kaal's Quintette Club, the Cavalry band playing during the intermissions. Among those observed were: General and Mrs. McClellan, Captain and Mrs. Falls, Major and Mrs. Wadhams, Miss Frear, Captain and Mrs. Parks, Mr. and Mrs. Cook of Los Angeles, Lieut. and Mrs. Turner, Mr. and Mrs. Marston Campbell, Major and Mrs. Dunning, Mrs. Alexander Giechricht Hawes Jr., Major and Mrs. Cree, Lieut. and Mrs. Dougherty, Mrs. and Miss Van Schuyver, Mr. and Mrs. Smith of Seattle, Mrs. G. Wilder, Captain and Mrs. Scales of Letlehu, Captain and Mrs. Sturges, Captain and Mrs. Ramsey, U. S. M. C., Captain and Mrs. Marix, Captain and Mrs. Low, Lieut. and Mrs. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Dexter, Cal., Judge and Mrs. Armstrong, Mrs. Pardee of Fort Shafter, The Misses Rose McClellan, Vera Damon, Hough of Stockton, Cal., Benson, Portland, Ore., Cree, Katherine Stephens, Turner and Cox of St. Louis, Barnes, Detroit, Mich., Josephine McClellan, Blanche Soper, McStocker, Magoon, Lydia McStocker, Nina Craig, Gault, Rosie Herbert, T. J. Messers, Lieut. Phil Sheridan, Lt. James, Lt. Vaughn, Messrs. Withington, Fulford, Bruce Cartwright Jr., Kendall, Clarke, Bohr, Lt. Burrell, Capt. Hanson, Lt. Bowen, Lt. Morrison, Dr. Adams, U. S. A., Lt. Rogers, Lt. Kilgore, Mr. Frank Thompson, Mr. Ollie Sorenson and many others.

The large fresh water tank at the Fort, has just been completed, this is quite an acquisition to Fort Shafter. Lieut. Chilton's guests began to arrive at three o'clock, a swim was enjoyed and later tea was served. Among the guests of this popular young Officer were: Mrs. Harry Turner of Los Angeles, Major and Mrs. Samuel Dunning, Major and Mrs. Wadhams, Judge and Mrs. Sidney Ballou, Captain and Mrs. Chapman, Miss Rose McClellan, Miss Beatrice Castle, Miss Josephine McClellan, Miss Vera Damon, Lieut. ## The "Malihini Christmas Tree."

Last Christmas, the Moana hotel, had Mr. and Mrs. Bryan, and Mr. and Mrs. Jackson for guests. These people were from the East, and were away from their families during this time of rejoicing. An inspiration came to them, that the poor are everywhere, and Honolulu must have its quota so they made up their minds, that the children who had never known what Christmas meant, should have a tree, laden with candy and toys, such as they never dreamed of possessing. They obeyed this generous impulse and gave a treat that these poor children will never forget. The "Malihini Christmas tree" is fresh in their minds today, and all that these generous people asked in return, was that the tree was to be an established custom. Again they were thinking of the children who have so little, and so few pleasures. It stands to reason that the few strangers who spend their holidays here, have neither the means, or the spirit in them, to give so liberally, neither should it be expected. There is enough wealth here and to spare, and the liberality of our people is well known, and their generous response to every appeal. In the past and one feels that this has been but an oversight in not arranging for the Xmas tree this year, however, it is not too late for if the money is raised, competent women have promised to come forward and do the brunt of the work, such as purchasing toys, candy etc. Let this act of perpetuating such a deed of giving every child once a year, the time of its life, a feeling that Santa Claus has remembered them, is a happiness in itself, that you have helped to bring joy in to their little hearts. A fortune is not required to give this treat, every small contribution will be gratefully received, but make it possible to give this treat, so that the poor children can enjoy the day given us by our blessed Lord, who loved the little ones. In memory of Him, give out of your abundance.

Judge and Mrs. Ballou's Cotillion.

Overseas, the home of Judge and Mrs. Sidney Ballou, will be the scene of much gaiety, Monday evening. The occasion will be a cotillion which is planned in honor of Mrs. Harry Turner of Los Angeles. Mr. Walter Dillingham of Honolulu will lead the German, and will be assisted by the charming guest of honor. A number of pretty figures will be danced, and many novelties, in the way of favors introduced. This affair will not be a large one, only twenty couples having been invited, none but young married people who are keen over dancing have been included on Mrs. Ballou's invitation list, besides the young maids and society bachelors of the city.

College Club Meeting.

On Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Wells Peterson, the College Club held its final monthly meeting for the year. The meeting was an informal reception, the members being received at the door by the President of the Club, Mrs. Hendrick and the hostess, Miss Margaret Hopper and ushered into the dining room where tea, biscuits and cakes were served by Mrs. A. Lewis and Miss Eleanor Waterhouse, Mrs. Hobbs and Mrs. Ward presiding at the tea table. Following the usual custom of the club, the short but attractive program was then presented. The first number was several songs sung by Mrs. Lindsay in a most delightful manner from a "Cycle of Songs" by Benjamin Whipple from Tennyson's Maud. Mrs. W. L. Whitney was accompanist. Following the songs Mrs. Philip Weaver read a most interesting paper on George Meredith, the novelist. Mrs. Weaver is a woman of wide culture and her papers are always good and her audience was thoroughly appreciative as was apparent from the close attention given every word.

After the paper the members spent a social half hour together before the meeting broke up.

Miss Helen Macfarlane departed on the steamer Lurline Friday, for were there to wish her "bon voyage." Mr. George Castle was a home returning passenger on the Lurline flowers and leis, and many friends from the Coast.

A store that has sold High-Class Goods for over 20 Years is a Good Place to go when you buy Christmas Jewelry.

JEWELRY is the gift for Christmas. There is something personal about it that appeals to everyone. It has charm and sentiment and will serve as a reminder of the giver to be treasured long after styles and fashions have changed.

There is always some one Jewelry store in a city this size that enjoys the advantage of being considered "the best place to go." This is generally due to a long established reputation for selling high class goods, and to the confidence of the public.

We believe most people in Honolulu if they had their choice would prefer to have their gifts come from "WICHMAN'S."

This year—as in the past—we have given careful attention to the selection of our large stock of Christmas jewelry.

We will be glad to have you come to us for suggestions: We know we can please you.
